

Daniel Osborne @deellow

1h

@Dave_Boucher1 @lmessina Yeah, mine smells in South Charleston.

Retweeted by Dave Boucher

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More

Rob Anderson @tusk88

1h

@Dave_Boucher1 @lmessina mine smells too and irritated my scalp, eyes and throat when I showered. On East End.

Retweeted by Dave Boucher

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More

Dave Boucher @Dave_Boucher1

1h

@whereisjoemerch @Kenwardjr @GovTomblin Yes. Several reporters had briefing with the governor, others Tuesday evening.

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More

Dave Boucher @Dave_Boucher1

1h

@kirkmurphy @KatzConsulting @Kenwardjr @EmmettPepper @wvamwater WVNG said will go back, test at ppbillion level after last area cleared

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More

Dave Boucher @Dave_Boucher1

1h

@DMLocalGov @AmyThomas923 They've said because "clean" water shipped from WVAM plant. But, admit some still could be in water, causing smell

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More

Dave Boucher @Dave_Boucher1

1h

@DMLocalGov @AmyThomas923 Additionally, WVAM has repeatedly said that it won't retest in cleared areas because of the non-detect tests

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More

Dave Boucher @Dave_Boucher1

1h

@DMLocalGov @AmyThomas923 WVAM announced "non-detected" results from treatment plants. WVAM spox: not necessarily the same as no chem in water

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More

Pally Drome @Pallymigo

1h

@Dave_Boucher1 @lmessina my water REEKS still after 8 "flushes" now. #WVWaterCrisis

Retweeted by Dave Boucher

View conversation

Reply Retweet Favorite More